

Pier 36 NYC

Located on the Lower East Side at 299 South Street, this waterfront venue sits right at the intersection of South Street and Montgomery Street. It is highly accessible from various parts of the city whether you are driving or using mass transit.

By Public Transport (Subway): The most direct route is taking the F train to the East Broadway station. From the Rutgers St./Madison St. exit, it is about a 10-minute walk east towards the East River (walk down Rutgers or Madison, then cross South Street). You can also take the B or D trains to the Grand Street station or the J, M, or Z trains to Delancey St-Essex St, though these require a slightly longer 15-minute walk.

By Bus: Several local bus lines drop you off within a 5-to-10-minute walk of the venue. The M22 (towards the Lower East Side) stops very close by at Madison St and Montgomery St. The M14A-SBS and M15 routes also serve the immediate surrounding area.

By Car: If you are driving, the most direct access is via the FDR Drive. If you are heading southbound, take Exit 3 towards South St/Manhattan Bridge, stay straight, and follow it as it merges into South Street. If you are going northbound, stay on South Street (driving under the FDR highway) past the Manhattan Bridge until you hit Montgomery Street, then turn right into the venue. Limited parking is available on-site inside the fenced-in area, with additional off-street parking options in the surrounding neighborhood.
